Black Saturday

National Movement and Lebanese Front perspectives

Friday 5 Dec. 1975: Killings on the Fanar road

5 Palestinians on patrol encounter a car with members of the Kataeb

15-20 Palestinians ambush a car with members of the Kataeb

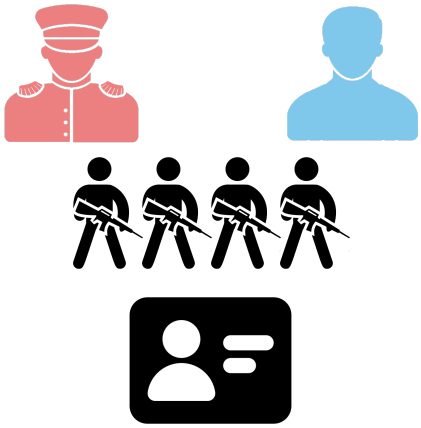

The Palestinians shoot the 5 Kataeb men

The Palestinians butcher the 5 Kataeb men with axes

Saturday 6 Dec. 1975: Members of the Kataeb Kill Muslims in Beirut

In response, Kataeb leadership orders checkpoints to be set up where passing Muslims, identified as such by their ID-cards, should be killed

In response, the father of one of the dead men leads renegade Kataeb members to set up checkpoints and kill Muslims based on their ID-cards

---

In total, more than 150 Muslims are killed

150+  60

In total, about 60 Muslims are killed

Action Research Associates Beirut

Truth and Reconciliation Lebanon is a project of Action Research Associates.
This infographic was designed using images from Flaticon.com